Upcoming Features

Meet the Jumbula Ticketing System

The new Ticketing system will give you a direct way to connect with our support team. Submit questions, report issues, and track your tickets right from the NG Admin Dashboard. With its fresh design, you can view all your threads and ticket details in one place, making it easier to follow updates and receive the help you need more quickly.

 Expected release date: October 2025

iOS 26 Support and Search Enhancements

Jumbula for Business App will soon support iOS 26 with a fresh new look. The participant search will have its own search tab, allowing you to switch between programs and participants. Open any participant to review profile details, email directly, see schedules, update attendance, and jump into program screens—all designed to help you get work done faster.

 Expected release date: October 2025
